

The Ballad Of Larry Webb – JJ Grey & Mofro

Music & Lyrics by JJ Grey

Acoustic Guitar use capo on 2nd fret

Intro: Bm* Bm* A
Bm* D E

Bm* Slide part on Guitar played within the Bm Chord.

Single notes played: B F# B B-s-C B A (see below for guitar tab)

A E D
He never missed a day of work, always had a kind word
A E D
Four buttons on a worn out shirt, but neatly cleaned and pressed
A E D
He couldn't read or write, but never failed to see a sight or hear a sound.
A E D
A triumph in this life to watched it all go by - with a smile

A E Bm D
All that is, all that will be, all we have is each other

A E D
His son died young his daughter as deaf as stone.
A E D
His castle a shotgun house an easy chair his throne
A E D
He'd work from day to night and in the evening he'd feel its bite of pain
A E D
But every sunrise he'd greet it all with open arms and love - for all that is.

A E Bm D
All that is, all that will be, all we have is each other
A E Bm D
All that is, all that will be, all we have is each other

Bm . . . Bm . . . A
Many thought him simple but so few see the truth
Bm . . . Bm . . . A
So loud we live that we can't feel the glory anymore
Bm . . . D E
And then I heard he died but all I could feel was the joy, oh the joy

A E Bm D
All that is, all that has been, all we have is each other

A E Bm D
All that is, all that will be, all we have is each other

A E
No it's not a shame, no it's not a shame

Bm D
To be loved in this life, and to love in this life

(repeat a fade)

Bm* Slide part for Intro:

With no capo on 2nd Fret

e		-----
B		-----4s6--4--2---
G		-----4-----
D		-----4-----
A		---2-----
E		-----

In relation to capo on 2nd Fret

e		-----
B		-----2s4--2--0---
G		-----2-----
D		-----2-----
A		---0-----
E		-----