

Write A Letter – JJ Grey & Mofro

Music & Lyrics by JJ Grey

Intro: A G D A G D

A G D
Soft as a voice, spoken from heaven

A G D
Honey for my ears, temper my soul

A G D
The warmth in the rain, the green in the bottom

A G D
The echo in the night when a train whistle blows

A G D
Holding up your arms, V is for Victory

A G D
Power versus force, power wins

A G D
Radiate the joy from deep in your essence

A G D
It's always the beginning it's always the end

G A C D E
I write these words and I'm going to send them home to you

A G
I'm going to write a letter, send it home

D
First class, first class baby

A
Let them know where I'm going to be

A G
I'm going to write a letter, send it home

D
Just as fast, as fast as you can mister postman

A
If you please

C G D A
I've been waiting, been waiting, waiting so long
C G
Time ain't standing still, ain't standing still
D A
While I sing, sing this song

Bridge: C G D A C G D E* ... 'Lookie Here'
Song changes key to E major with this jump. (One full step from D to E)*

B A E
Holding up your arms, V is for Victory
B A E
Power versus force, power wins
B A E
Radiate the joy from deep in your essence
B A E
It's always the beginning it's always the end

A B D E F#
I write these words; someday I know I'll understand

Ooh baby want you understand

B A
I'm going to write a letter, send it home
E
First class, first class baby
B
Let them know where I'm going to be
B A
I'm going to write a letter, send it home
E
Just as fast, as fast as you can mister postman
B
If you please

B A E Chord Progression repeats all the way to the end of the song

Guitar Solo in E minor Pentatonic Scale. Notes used: E G A B D